To Our Valued Customers:

Due to the large volume of K-12 orders and a limited supply of raw material, effective today Yang's is forced to implement a 35-business day lead time for all K-12 pack items containing chicken.

This extended lead time does not affect non-chicken items such as rice or chow mein, or any foodservice or retail packaged products.

We hope this extended lead time is temporary and can be lifted very soon.

Thank you for your understanding and continued support.

Sincerely,
